PRESIDENT AND MRS. PANKHURST

In Conference Over Deportation of English Militant.

REEVES' PREDICTION.

Counsel For Woman Resume Arguments Before Caminetti and Ask For Her Release.

Washington, Oct. 20.—A double inquiry in Washington today will dispose of the case of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, English militant, knocking at the doors of this country for admission, so far as the executive branch of the government is concerned, a hearing before Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti this morning being the first, followed by a conference at the White House.

Although Mr. Caminetti claimed that he had no knowledge of any conference to be held at the White House today regarding the Pankhurst case, he did not expect to see President Wilson in regard to the matter, it was confidently expected by those in close touch with the situation that the matter would not be finally disposed of unil President Wilson had talked with Secretary of Labor Wilson or Caminetti.

Before the commissioner general's finding in the case becomes effective it must be approved by the Secretary of Labor, who has the power to reverse any previous finding.

"Mrs .Pankhurst will be released from Ellis Island today in time to eat dinner in New York City. I have no fear that she will not appear in Madison Square Garden tonight."

That was the prediction made by Herbert Reeves, attorney for the English militant just before the opening of the formal hearing before Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti this morning, at which it was expected that he would definitely decide the case of Mrs. Pankhurst, as far as the Department of Labor was concerned.

The government authorities disregarded a warning, it is said, to send the train over another route.

FIRE IN EAST ST. LOUIS.

Railroad Terminal and Portion of Business Section Threatened.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 20.—The entire railroad terminal of East St. Louis, one of the largest in the United States, and a portion of the business section of the city, were threatened with destruction by fire which began on the banks of the Mississippi river last night and spread rapidly in three directions. At midnight the loss was believed to be several hundred thousand dollars, and the fire was still beyond control.

In the flame-swept district were the properties of the Advance Grain Co., the Chicago and Alton freight house, the Baltimore and Ohio freight house, and many other buildings. Hundreds of cars were burned in the railroad yards.

Shortly before midnight the elevator of the Advance Grain Company, where the fire is believed to have originated, collapsed.

The fire spread to the Clover Leaf Warehouse and the business section of East St. Louis.

They were ejected and the police prevented their holding a meeting on the steps. Similar scenes were enacted at St. Luke's, Kensington, and at the Birmingham and Norwich Cathedrals.

COURT OF APPEALS WILL HEAR CASE

Tribunal Grants Appeal of Alexandria From The Circuit Court.

TO BE FAR-REACHING.

Many Points to be Determined of State-Wide Interest — Voluminous Record.

Important legal points bearing on the whole question of annexing of territory to cities and which may have a far-reaching effect in the final determination of the problem in Richmond are to be passed upon by the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. As was stated in the Gazette on Saturday an appeal was granted by Judge Keith in the case of the City of Alexandria against Alexandria county and Fairfax county from a decree of the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, in which the annexation petitioned for was refused.

The council of the City of Alexandria adopted an annexation ordinance which was approved by the Mayor on December 29, 1911. In accordance with the law governing annexation, the city on June 27, 1912, moved the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, in which county the greater part of the territory proposed to be annexed lies, to order the annexation of the territory described. In accordance with law, which prohibits the local judges from sitting in such cases, the Governor designated Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of the circuit composed of Amherst, Fluvanna and Nelson counties,to hear the case in vacation. The proceeding was argued and submitted on November 14, 1912, and the judge on January 18, 1913, entered an order dismissing the motion and denying the request of the City of Alexandria for additional territory.

From that order the city appeals. The record in the case is one of the most voluminous that has come before the Supreme Court in some time. Bond in the sum of $2,000 was required by Judge Keith. The city's petition was presented by John M. Johnson, Samuel G. Brent, and Samuel P. Fisher, the latter the atorney for Alexandria.

The present corporate boundaries of Alexandria include 718 acres. The total land desired to be annexed amounts 1, 316 acres, of which 180 acres are covered by the waters of Hunley Creek, the land running to the center of that creek, in order to secure the city necessary drainage rights.

The land in Alexandria county desired is 866 acres, and that in Fairfax county 450 acres. The two counties joined in opposition to the annexation on the ground that it would take away a large proportion of their taxable values. The petition states that much of the land has already been subdivided and sold in building lots In the present city limits steam railroad lines with depots and yards occupy more than five miles of streets, substantially destroying for residential purposes more than fifty blocks. Tables gives the population of Alexandria at the last census ate 15,320. Of all the cities in Virginia, it has the largest population per square mile. Richmond second, with 11,002 people per square mile.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA.

Will Meet in Danville Tomorrow—Delegates From This City.

As has been stated, the Presbyterian Synod will meet in Danville tomorrow. Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison and J. N. Gibbs will represent the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, with A. G. Uhler as alternate.

The year 1911-12 was marked with decided increase in activity in the work of foreign missions by the Synod and by large increase in contrbutions to this cause from every Presbytery. The amount contributed in that year was $2,690, and it is probable the committee on foreign missions will report a large increase over these figures for this year, due, in part, to the payment by this synod of its proportion of the foreign missio nduring the present year.

The gift of the Woman's Synodical Union to foreign missions last year amounted to $20,282. This union has a membership of 7,175.

Rev. E. T. Welford, D. D., of Newport News, is retiring moderator of the synod, and he will preach the sermon when the anunal session opens. The stated clerk is Dr. James Power Smith, of Richmond.

SENTENMED TO DEATH 5 TIMES.

But Negro Places Faith in Rabbit's Foot and is Not Afraid.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 20.—Probably the only man who has ever faced a death sentence six times on the charge of murder will be tried again by the court of Anniston, in this state, late this month, or early in November. The prisoner is Ervin Pope, colored, who is charged with killing J. B. McClerkin, a prominent planter of Oxford, near Anniston, in April, 1909.

Pope will face a death sentence with the assertion of his innocence, after having been sentenced to death five times. The prisoner has never shown the slightest trace of fear. He said he carried in his pocket during all the trials the left hind foot of a rabbit "killed in a graveyard on a moonlight night," and this has saved his life five times.

ALLEGED PLOT TO SELL OUT

Arrest of Deputies Said to be Part of Huerta's Game.

CONFERS WITH REYES.

Former Minister Predicts Speedy Ending of Present Regime—Dictator in Fiery Rage.

Laredo, Tex., AOct. 20. — Advice just received here by agents of the constitutionalists indicate something more than a mere mad outbreak on the part of Huerta in his imprisonment of the deputies and declaration of his dictatorship.

It is stated that the threatened disclosure of a plot to sell the presidential election to the highest bidder among the foreign financial interests precipitated Huerta's action and caused the arrest of the deputies to prevent them from blocking his game.

The story, as it reaches here, is that Rudolfo Reyes, former minister of justice, was made aware of the plot to sell the presidency, by confidential agents of Huerta, who thought to induce him for Diaz and the French interests to bid against the others. He humored the idea and had an interview on the subject with Huerta.

According to the story told the agents of the Constitutionalists here, he led Huerta along with arguments and covert suggestions until Huerta made him a direct propositon that he would consider a bid of $2,500,000. Reyes then told Huerta plainly that he had no offer to make, and that Diaz would be president without paying anything, whether Huerta wanted him or not.

He told Huerta that Diaz would accomplish his overthrow within ten days, whereupon Huerta, in a frenzy, attacked Reyes and tried to kill him. He was prevented, but the same night, had the minister of justice thrown into prison, where he remains.

WILD BEASTS IN LEIPZIG.

Tiger and Lions Liberated in Collision With Street Car.

Leipzig, Saxony, Oct. 20.—When a street car collided with a circus wagon at midnight it liberated one tiger and eight lions and Leipig was in an uproar until after daylight today.

The female trainer of the animals succeeded in recapturing the tiger, but lions had a merry time until the police killed six and roped two. One lion pleae dto the driver's seat of an auto bus and dispossessed the chauffeur, to the discomforture of the passengers. A policeman shot the beast from his perch.

Five other lions were shot down in the streets. Two more broke through the plate glass front of the Blucher Hotel and held high carnilval in the corridors all night. The hotel was crowded with guests who had attended the military celebration on Saturday. The guests, screaming with terror, barricaded themselves in their rooms and distracted the clerks with calls for help. Some were for escaping through the windows, but quickly crawled bask when they saw and the turmoil in the street below.

The police reserves, the fire department, and the troops quartered within the town were called upon to capture the lions and restore order. A thick fog added to the terror of the night and the whole city was in a panic.

The two lions in possession of the hotel were recaptured at day break and led off to the police station, where their execution was ordered, despite the frantic pleading of the woman trainer, who followed the police, begging for the lives of her pets.

Many years ago John Beckley, a well-known colored man of this city, conducted a confectionery and toy store in the building. He died about 1853, and later an Englishman named George Siggers had a book bindery and periodical store at the place. During the civil war it was used for divers purposes by strangers who engaged in business in this city. It was at one time the office of the Alexandria Water Company, and at another a tenement house. Several years ago Mr. Smith acquired the property, introduced modern improvements and used it until recently as his residence.

At a meeting of the city democratic committee to be held at the Rammel Hotel tomorrow night at eight o'clock, plans will be mapped out to secure a large vote for the democratic ticket at the election which will be held two weeks from tomorrow. There has been much apathy on account of the lack of opposition to the democratic nominees, Henry C. Stuart, the candiate for governor of Virginia, not having had any opposition in either the primary or the general election.

In addition to the state officers to be elected all of the municipal officers will also come up for election. None of the these had opposition in the primary.

The full ticket to be elected on November 4th, is as follows: For governor, Henry C. Stuart, of Russell; for lieuteant governor, J. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond city; for attorney general, John Garland Pollard, of Henrico; for commissioner of agriculture, G. W. Koiner, of Augusta; for House of Delegates, J. Fred Birrell; for city treasurer, Thomas W. Robinson, for commissioner of revenue, Charles H. Callahan; for clerk of corporation court, Nevell S Greenaway; for city sergeant, Robert H. Cox; for commonwealth attorney, Samuel G. Brent, for city auditor, E. F. Price; for city tax collector, Patrick F. Gorman; for clerk of gas, John B. Waller; for measurer and inspector of lumber, Charles S. Swain; for measurer and inspector of wood and bark, Carter M. Smith.

In addition four justices of the peace, one from each ward will be Carriage Containing Wedding Party Rolls Down Bank.

While en route to the wedding of Miss Virginia Meade and Daniel Jenifer Harrison at Braddock Heights, Alexandria county, Saturday night, six Alexandrians who were riding in a carriage had a narrow escape when the carriage went down a six-foot embankment opposite the home of Mr. Meade. Several of the occupants received slight cuts and bruises.

The occupants of the hack were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Monroe, Mrs. C. C. Leadbeater, Miss Margaret Ashby, and Misses Judith and Isabelle Boswell.

The driver of a hack, a colored man, also was slightly buised. The hack was considerably damaged.

Most of the party was able to continue the journey and attend the wedding.

SERVICES FOR MOTHERS.

Despite inclement weather, the special services at the Washington St. Methodist Episcopal Church South, yesterday, which was designated as "mother's day," were well attended. Automobiles were furnished to convey aged and infirm to and from the church, and women of the congregation relieved the mothers of large families while they attended the services. At the morning service, Thos E. Hayes, former mayor of Baltimore and at one time a resident of this city, delivered an address on the Bible.

OFFERS REWARD.

State Will Pay $100 Each For James J. Alvis and Robert Allen.

Richmond, Oct. 20.—Governor Mann offered yesterday rewards of $100 each for the capture of James J. Avis and Robert Allen, escaped prisoners from Orange county. Alvis was tried in the Circuit Court of Orange county recently and convicted of shooting and wounding R G. Watkins, town Sergeant of Gordonsville, and sentenced to six years in the penitentiary. While awaiting the arrival of officers to take them to the State prison both men cut their way out of the Orange county jail and escaped.

The Board of Supervisors of the county has offered a reward of $50 in each case, which reward the governor supplemented by a State reward of $100 for the capture of each man.

(Alvis, it will be remembered, was arrested in Washington several months ago for stealing a cow at Four Mile Run, in Alexandria county.)

MURDERERS SENTENCED.

Men Who Killed Junk Dealer Found Guilty in Second Degree.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 20.—At Amherst Courthouse Saturday John Beard and Bascom Williams were convicted of the murder of David Cooper, of Baltimore, junk dealer, in Amherst county last July, and were given five years in the penitentiary. The State asked only a second-degree verdict.

The shooting took place in a fight which followed Cooper's failure to drive out of the way of an automobile in which the convicted men were riding. Cooper's dying statement was that he was held by one of the defendants and shot by the other. The prisoners asserted the shooting was done in a scuffle.

WOMAN'S HEAD SHOT OFF.

Brutal Murder of a Negress Near Cape Charles, Va.

Cape Charles, Va., Oct. 20.—A little three-room house situated on Old Plantation Creek on Hollywood Farm, one mile from Cape Charles, was the scene of the most brutal murder ever committed in Northampton county, Saturday night, when Abraham Lincoln Ruffin, 22 years old, shot and killed Mary Jenkins, 17 years old, of Norfolk, Va., with a single barrel shot gun.

The woman's head was blown entirely off, and but for the stepfather of Ruffin, Samuel Hooper, her body would have undoubtedly been thrown into Plantation Creek. From the evidence at the coroner's inquest this morning, Ruffin was solely responsible for the crime, although he denied guilt, claiming that the woman committed suicide. He was placed in jail at Eastville, awaiting the hearing before the grand jury. All concerned are colored.

MOTHER KILLED BY HER SON.

Accidental Discharge of Revolver Fatal to Elderly Norfolk Woman.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Jennig Williams, 66 years old, was accidentally shot and killed at her home, 814 Southampton avenue, Saturday night, by Walter H. Williams, her 19-year-old son. Williams was cleaning a revolver and had taken four of the five cartridges from the weapon and placed them in his mother's lap.

The fifth cartridge was difficult to extract, and the boy was trying to pry it out with a pair of scissors, when it exploded. The bullet entered Mrs. Williams' left temple. She died instantly.

SAVES WOMAN FROM JAIL.

Husband Incarcerated, but Wife, Alleged Accessory, Sent to Home.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 20.—After pleading guilty to the theft of $11,000 from the Pocahontas postoffice, former Assistant Postmaster Edward Silberger was remanded to the Roanoke city jail Saturday by United States Commissioner Goodloe.

Mrs. Silberger, wife of the prisoner, held as an accessory, waived hearing. She has a 6-month-old baby and for that reason was not sent to jail. She will remain at the headquarters of the local Salvation Army, the wife of the captain in charge signing bond to insure Mrs. Silberger's apearance before the United States court at Danville, Va., in November, when her husband's case will go to a Federal grand jury. An effort will be made to secure bail for both of them.

The prisoners were arrested in Cleveland, several days ago, where they fled from Pocahontas.

DESPERADO KILLED

Jack Perrow First Shoots Policeman in Abdomen.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 20.—Jack Perrow, desperado, only a few weeks out of the penitentiary, was shot and killed almost instantly yesterday morning by Policeman George Ware, of the local department. The policeman was wounded perhaps fatally by Perrow before the desperado received his mortal wound.

Perrow was being hunted by Policemen Ware and Hogan, who wanted him for robbing cars in Sandy Hook yard, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The policemen separated and Ware came upon Perrow suddenly in some undergrowth. He shouted to Perrow to throw up his hands, but instead, the desperado whipped out his revolver, and fired five times in rapid succession, the fifth shot striking Ware in the abdomen. Perrow was shot in the left breast, left forearm and in the head.

Perrow was hurried to the Lynchburg Hospital, but died en route. Ware was taken to the Home and Retreat, where his condition was found to be serious.

This is the second time Policeman Ware, who has been on the force about five years, has been shot while discharging his duties. August 19 1911, a negro shot him at 12th and Church street and the wound yesterday is almost in the identical place and practically of the same character, giving the officer but a bare chance to recover.

Perrow had not been out of the penitentiary much more than a month when he was shot, having served a term for wounding Policeman George Hook, when an effort was being made to arrest him for shooting up a yard engine in the Chesapeake and Ohio yard not more than a mile from the scene of the tragedy yesterday.

SEARCHING FOR HEIRS.

Martzes and Phillipses of Virginia, Excited These Days.

Harrisonburg, Va., Oct. 20. — The Martzes and the Phillipses of north Rockingham county are all excited over a little 'want" ad published in a local paper asking for information concerning heirs of Frederick Phillips, a native of Rockingham county, who recently died leaving a large estate in Licking county, Ohio.

Family trees, genealogies, Bible records and court documents are being searched in efforts to land information. A lawyer from Ohio, the administrator of the Phillips estate, will arrive here in a few days and it is confidently predicted that he will have but little trouble locating numerous and sundry heirs.

Virginian Injured.

Elvin J. Marcey, thirty-seven years old, of Cherrydale, Va., a motorman on a milk train on the Bluemont division of the Washington and Old Dominion Railway, had his back badly wrenched yesterday as a result of a collision between his car and a passenger train standing on the main line at Leesburg. Marcey was brought to Washington and removed to Georgetown University Hospital. No other person was injured.

HOW TO BUILD UP THE COMMONWEALTH.

The following article was written by Robert S. Barrett, editor of the Alexandria Gazette, and won the third prize of $25 in gold offered by Colonel John Murphy for the best suggestions on how to advance the interests of Virginia.

How to Build Up the Commonwealth.

Few States have the foundation upon which to build a more glorious future than has Virginia. Here all factors needed for human happiness and the development of character can be found—an ideal geographical situation, an admirable climate, a great store of natural resources, a fertile soil, capable of producing everything needed for man and beast—and that even more important feature, a race of men and women whose blood, history and ideals fit them for the highest development.

When a survey of the elements needed for the up building of the Commonwealth is made, the improvement of the transportation facilities is easily seen to be the most important, and in this direction lies a great work for the newspapers of the State. Railway and steamship lines need capital with which to extend their facilities and provide sufficient equipment to care for their constantly growing traffic. Capital must receive a fair return on its investment, and, at the same time, the carriers owe to the people of the Commonwealth certain duties which must be met. The advocacy of a program of broad and liberal treatment for the transportation lines will encourage them to improve their facilities, but with this must come the requirement that the laws and regulations of the State be strictly complied with.

The improvement of the public roads of the State rank among the first of its needs. No effort should be spared until Virginia is covered with a vast network of modern highways so that families can be brought closer to their neighbors, villages nearer to their county seats, county seats in close proximity to their towns, towns within a few hours of the cities and the State joined by many additional roads with its sister States. The doctrine of good roads already widely disseminated through the State, should be preached until there is not a person within its boundaries who is not convinced that good roads means prosperity and progress.

With improved transportation facilities, the upbuilding of the Commonwealth proadens into two principal avenues—the development of the country and farming districts and the development of the towns and cities. Of the two the first will appeal as most important to those who believe that the prosperity of the country depends largely upon the farmer and see in Virginia an opportunity for the development of the ideal rural life which has been responsible for so many great leaders in our national history. It must be apparent to all that there is no greater factor for prosperity than good crops, and there is no surer method of increasing the wealth and well-being of the Commonwealth than by increasing the yield of our products. Farm life in Virginia should be made more profitable by giving the boys and girls living in the country greater opportunities to educate themselves along practical lines by increasing the facilities of the county or district high schools, so that agricultural, technical and domestic science courses may be important factors where the hand may be taught in conjunction with the brain; where efficiency will be regarded as the cardinal virtue. Larger appropriations for the rural high schools should be urged by the newspapers of the State.

To keep the boys and girls on the farms drudgery must be removed from farm life, and here another opportunity presents itself. The doctrine of labor-saving machinery for the farm wife in her dairy, her kitchen and her household should be preached, as well as for the farmer, who already is becoming more and more educated to the need of the latest improved reapers, binders, drills and spreaders. The removing of lonesomeness from those living in the country will do much to make people more contended to live in rural districts. Good roads, bringing communities in closer touch with one another and making possible an interchange of social life, will make living conditions on the farm more acceptable.

Development of the community interest by advocating the school houses and churches as centers around which will cluster all the activities of the county, the establishment of boys' corn clubs and girls' canning clubs, debating societies, mothers' meetings and fraternal organizations, should be fostered by the newspapers of the State, especially those in county seats.

The development of the towns, and cities of the State will naturally follow the prosperity of the rural districts, but it is easily seen that upon the newspapers of the State must depend much of their progress. Efficiency in municipal affairs must be the watchword; an efficient city government, in place of the cumbersome councils which clog the administrative work in many towns and cities; efficient schools, where boys and girls may be prepared for the struggle of life; efficient publicity so that the advantages of each community may be widely advertised, and men and capital brought to assist in its development.

There are many other factors that are needed in the upbuilding of the Commonwealth. Perhaps of all things the most important to do at once is a revision of the tax laws of the State, which are at present antiquated and unjust. This is a problem that deserves the most serious consideration of our people and a State convention for the purpose of revising our methods of taxation should be urged.

These are some of the things destined to bring Virginia into its own. But never should be forgotten the traditions of the past; never for a second should be overlooked that the growth of the Commonwealth depends upon the high ideals and Christian character of its men and women, and the constant reiteration of these principles by the press of Virginia, teaching obedience to the laws of God and the State, the condemnation of all that is shady and untrue, must do more than anything else to build up the Commonwealth.

ALL READY FOR THE BAZAR.

Armory Hall never looked prettier than at present, although many fairs have been held in that structure during the past third of a century. The ladies having the bazar for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital in charge have worked in season out of season, and their labors shoul be rewarded. All who have had the privilege of looking within are profuse in their admiration of the skill and taste displayed by the committee.

There is something in the bazar to meet every taste, and at the opening tonight the ladies should be encouraged by being able to meet many friends of the hospital.

The various features of the bazar were described in the Gazette a few days ago. The ladies were on hand today placing the finishing touches on the many decorations, and when the electric lights shall have been turned on the picture will be dazzling. The needs and tastes of all have been anticipated, and the success of the bazar is assured from the outset.

It is useless for the Gazette to add to what it has said concerning the Alexandria Hospital during the past third of a century. Appreciated as it was at its inception, its value becomes more apparent yearly. The good people of Alexandria have ever manifested their interest in the hospital in a substantial manner, and the efforts of the committee of ladies in its behalf will doubtless be encouraged by a large attendance nightly and a liberal patronage of the many departments.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Nearly half a million dollars was appropriated yesterday at the Fall Council of the General Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists now being held at Tacoma Park for the furtherance of missionary endeavor in foreign lands during 1914. The total amount, $483,419.71, is the largest that has ever been appropriated by the denomination. Up to this year the General Conference appropriated many thousands of dollars for the advancement of the Gospel in the large cities of the United States and Canada, but this year these will be provided for from funds of the North American Division Conference. The appropriations for city work in North America will be made later during the present council.

A force of Chinese brigands, commanded by Gen. Hwang Liang, has murdered 300 people in the province of Fo Kien, China, and also burned two mission churches, the property of the American Missionary Societies. The American missionaries from the disturbed district are still in Fu-Chow where they took refuge during the recent troubles. The Chinese government troops sent against the brigands have not shown much activity. The Chinese war office promised the American Charge d'Affaires, Edward T. Williams, that it would institute effective measures for the suppression of the brigands.

Twenty-eight persons were injured, three seriously, yesterday afternoon when a Big Four passenger train rolled down an embankment three miles south of Tiffin, O. The train was southobund from Sandusky to Springfield. That there was not greater loss of life was due to the fact that the embankment was not steep.

While conducting mass yesterday in Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, Bishop March, a Roman Catholic priest, was fired upon by James Hare, believed to be insane. One shot grazed the head of the bishop wounding him slightly, while another bullet buried itself in the altar. Hare fired twice before several fishermen overpowered him. In spite of his injury, Bishop March continued the service, after a physician had bound up his head.

Adriana Costamanga, an actress was badly bitten and clawed by a leopard while posing for a classic scene in a bioscope picture at Rome yesterday. The keepers of the animal, who were standing nearby, could not use their revolvers as they were afraid of hitting the woman. They turned the hose on the leopard, but without effect. Finally they succeeded in getting a chain around the animal and dragging it away.

Praises This Remedy for Lung Trouble

Many people are led to believe that Lung Trouble is a disease which cannot be conquered. This is wrong, as many have fully recovered their health. A change of climate has helped some, but many more have been restored to health by breathing the freshest air, eating well cooked, wholesome food, being temperate in their habits and adding the tonic qualities of Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles. Investigate this case:—

Bowling Green, Ky., R. No. 4.

"Gentlemen: The spring of 1908 I had a severe cough for six months. I tried all the medicine that my doctors recommended to me, but no results came for the better. I had night sweats, and would cough and spit until I got so weak I could hardly do anything. But at last James Deering, of Glasgow Junction, insisted that I try your medicine. In one week's time there was quite an improvement in my condition, and after I had taken several bottles I felt as well as ever in my life. I firmly believe that Eckman's Alterative will relieve any case of lung trouble if taken before the last stage."

(Affidavit) A. C. BETTERSWORTH.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds, and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Ann Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from woman trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

COLD WEATHER.

Snow and Sleet Prevailing in the West.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 20.—Snow the first of the season, fell for an hour yesterday over western Missouri and eastern Kansas. Thermometers in this section last night stood at 4 to 8 degrees above the freezing point. Points in southern Kansas and northern Oklahoma report a fall in the temperature of nearly 40 degrees in the last 24 hours.

Rolla, Mo., Oct. 20.—The first snow of the season fell here yesterday afternoon. This is the earliest that snow has been known to fall in this section.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Oct. 20.—Sleet and snow fell here yesterday. The temperature has fallen rapidly.

Bartlesville, Okla., Oct. 20.—Snow fell over this section yesterday evening. It was the first October snow fallen in a quarter of a century.

Fargo, N. Dak., Oct. 20.—A severe snow storm, the first of the season broke over the Red river valley yesterday.

DIVORCE FOR STAYING HOME

Wife Seeks Freedom From Husband Who Won't Wander at Night.

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—Men have been brought into Police Court and many have been brought into the divorce court because they preferred the gay white way to wifey's company's at night, but it remained for Cincinnati to produce the man who is called upon to explain why his wife should not be given a divorce because he stayed at home at night.

John Hopping, a railroad switchman, prefers to stay at home nights and enjoy the comfort of the home he provided for his wife. She thinks differently, however, and last week in the Insolvency court filed suit for divorce on the grounds that he thus preferred to pass his time in the evenings.

TRY TO BLOW UP TRAIN.

Strike Situation More Serious in Michigan.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 20.—An attempt was made yesterday to blow up a Kewannaw Central passenger train taking 42 mine guards to the Mohawk mine. The guards and other passengers on the train probably owe their lives to Engineer Stephen Cocking, who detected the burning fuse and stopped his engine. A section of the track was blown out.

Following the explosion several hundred strikers surrounded the train. They were in a threatening mood but trouble was averted by the arrival of a force of mounted troops who pushed the crowd back. The soldiers are in control of the situation.

The track will be repaired and the train given military protection through to Mohawk. The affair probably will hasten the military plans to send a stronger force of men into Keweenaw district.

Two hundred additional strike-breakers arrived this morning for the mining companies and fifty mine guards for the Mohawk Mining Company. Picketing was continued at the Allouez mine, but it was unattended by trouble.

DIED FOR LACK OF BEAUTY.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 20.— The regret of Gertrude Mungale's life was that she was not pretty. She looked about her every day and saw that kindnesses for which she would have worked her finger- ends off came easily and naturally to girls who were beautiful. She worried over it, and the worry made her bitter and nervous, and at 26 sent her to the State Hospital for the Insane in St. Joseph.

"Good-bye," she told attendants. "The first chance I get I am going to commit suicide. Life isn't worth living when you're ugly."

Word was received Miss Mungale found the chance that she hoped for. She killed herself at the institution Thursday.
